ASSOCIATION OF AMERICAN LAW SCHOOLS 2005 ANNUAL MEETING AND EXHIBITS

The Association of American Law Schools is dedicated to improvement of the legal profession through legal education. The AALS Annual Meeting and Exhibits offer the most comprehensive program of professional development available for legal educators. The Exhibits Open House in the Grand Ballroom of the Hilton San Francisco provides meeting attendees the opportunity to view and discuss products and services which could enhance or support their teaching goals.

The Meeting Place is a lounge area in the Exhibit Hall for Annual Meeting participants to meet and greet colleagues and enjoy beverages and snacks each morning and afternoon.

This brochure serves as a guide to the Exhibits, providing information about their products and services and their location (see the back of this brochure for the floor plan).

Founded in 1992 to publish user-friendly law books. Since the first edition of O'Connor's Texas Rules* Civil Trials - now commonly know as the "trial lawyer's bible" - we have upheld our tradition of publishing books geared toward the practicing lawyer. The unique format of our publications - portable books written in plain English that are fast and easy to use - has filled a special need for attorneys and law students across the nation. Jones McClure Publishing plans to continue this tradition, maintaining its current catalog of products and expanding its line of publications to cover ever more areas of law practice.

Vital Source Technologies works with individual law schools to deliver publisher content to the desktop of students and faculty in a one-to-one laptop learning environment. Vital Source software empowers students to search these electronic materials in all of their courses, manage their notes and highlights in a consistent manner. Additionally, the software provides direct links to case law, rules and statutes through web-based resources enabling students to study and validate the full source material.
