

RESTATEMENT THIRD,
RESTITUTION AND UNJUST ENRICHMENT

PROJECTED TABLE OF CONTENTS

Andrew Kull, Boston University

Part I -- Introduction

Chapter 1. General Principles

- § 1. Restitution and unjust enrichment.
- § 2. Liability for some benefits and not others.
- § 3. No profit from conscious wrongdoing.
- § 4. Restitution may be legal or equitable.

Part II -- Liability in Restitution

Chapter 2. Vitiating Transactions

Topic 1. Benefits conferred by mistake

- § 5. Invalidating mistake.
- § 6. Payment of money not due.
- § 7. Performance or discharge of another's obligation.
- § 8. Payment in discharge of lien.
- § 9. Benefits other than money.
- § 10. Mistaken improvements.
- § 11. Mistake in gifts inter vivos.
- § 12. Mistake in expression.

Topic 2. Defective consent or authority

- § 13. Fraud and misrepresentation: rescission.
- § 14. Duress.
- § 15. Undue influence.
- § 16. Incapacity of transferor.
- § 17. Lack of authority.

Topic 3. Transfers under legal compulsion

- § 18. Judgment subsequently reversed or avoided.
- § 19. Recovery of tax payments.

Chapter 3. Intentional Transactions

Topic 1. Emergency intervention

- § 20. Protection of another's life or health.
- § 21. Protection of another's property.
- § 22. Performance of another's duty.

Topic 2. Self-interested intervention

- § 23. Self-interested intervention: general rule.
- § 24. Protection of claimant's property.
- § 25. [Former § 25 appears at § 46A.]
- § 26. [Former § 26 appears at § 46B.]
- § 27. Frustrated expectation of ownership.
- § 28. Unmarried cohabitants.
- § 29. Performance of contract with third person.
- § 30. Common fund.

Chapter 4. Restitution and Contract

Topic 1. Restitution to a performing party with no claim on the contract

- § 31. Indefiniteness or lack of formality.
- § 32. Illegality.
- § 33. Incapacity of recipient.
- § 34. Mistake or supervening change of circumstances.
- § 35. Performance of disputed obligation.
- § 36. Restitution to a party in default.

Topic 2. Restitutionary remedies for breach of an enforceable contract

- § 37. Rescission as a remedy for breach of contract.
- § 38. Restitutionary measure of contract damages.

Topic 3. Restitution in cases of profitable breach

- § 39. Profit derived from opportunistic breach.

Chapter 5. Restitution for Wrongs

Topic 1. Benefits acquired by tort or other breach of duty

- § 40. Trespass and conversion.
- § 41. Misappropriation of financial assets.
- § 42. Interference with intellectual property and similar rights.
- § 43. Fiduciary or confidential relation.
- § 44. Interference with other protected interests.

Topic 2. Diversion of property rights at death

- § 45. Homicide: the Slayer Rule.
- § 46. Interference with donative transfer.

Chapter 6. Three-Party Enrichment

Topic 1. Benefits conferred by claimant on a third party

- § 46A.* Performance of a joint obligation (indemnity and contribution).
- § 46B.* Performance of an independent obligation (equitable subrogation).

Topic 2. Benefits received by defendant from a third party

- § 47. Benefit to defendant in respect of claimant's property.
- § 48. Benefit to defendant to which claimant has a better right.

---

* The portions of Chapter 6 temporarily designated as §§ 46A and 46B originally appeared as §§ 25 and 26 in Tentative Draft No. 2 (2002). Intervening sections (and references to them) will be renumbered appropriately on final publication.

Part III -- Remedies

Chapter 7. Remedies

Topic 1. Restitution via money judgment: the measure of unjust enrichment

- § 49. Basic measures of enrichment; innocent recipients.
- § 50. Responsibility for enrichment.
- § 51. Enrichment of wrongdoers: disgorgement; accounting.
- § 52. Secondary enrichment: interest, use value, proceeds, consequential gains.

Topic 2. Restitution via rights in identifiable property

- § 53. Rescission.
- § 54. Constructive trust.
- § 55. Equitable lien.
- § 56. Subrogation.
- § 57. Following property into its product.
- § 58. Tracing through a commingled fund.
- § 59. Restitution in bankruptcy.
- § 60. Competing claimants.

Part IV -- Defenses to Restitution

Chapter 8. Defenses to Restitution

- § 61. Transfer not resulting in unjust enrichment.
- § 62. Equitable disqualification.
- § 63. Passing on.
- § 64. Change of position.
- § 65. Bona fide purchaser.
- § 66. Bona fide creditor.
- § 67. Notice.
- § 68. Value.
- § 69. Limitation of actions.
- § 70. Laches.