

Collaborations in Post-Katrina Activism: An Informal Opportunity for Law Teachers, Students and Local Providers to Brainstorm and Network

Nancy L. Cook, Roger Williams University

Representatives from the Student Hurricane Network, the SALT Hurricane Working Group, and many local providers will be there.

Local providers who have confirmed their attendance include: ACORN, Advocates for Environmental Human Rights, Alliance for Affordable Energy, Capital Appeals Project, Gert Town Revival Initiative, Greater NO Fair Housing Action Center, Mississippi Justice Center, NAACP Advocacy Center, and NOLAC (Legal Aid).

Other possible attendees include: Bucket Brigade, Commonground, Juvenile Justice, Youth Empowerment Project, Neighborhood partnership network, Safe Streets, and Workers for Racial Justice.

Note: some of these organizations are staffed with lawyers, others are not.
