

Supervision Clip Discussion Questions
AALS Clinical Conference
May, 2008

1. What was the supervisor trying to communicate, if anything, in the clip?
 - a. Did the supervisor imply any instructions?
 - b. What did the supervisor imply but leave unsaid?
 - c. Should the supervisor have stated things in a different way?
2. Did the supervisor communicate them effectively to the student?
 - a. Why or why not?
 - b. What would you have found more effective? Why?
 - c. What might the student have found more effective? Why?
3. What potential sources of misinterpretation do you see?
- 4. View clip.
5. What caused the student to misinterpret the supervisor?
 - a. What, precisely, did the student misinterpret?
 - b. Did the supervisor make any significant mistakes in communicating with the student?
 - c. What could the student have done to avoid the misinterpretation?
 - i. How can the supervisor help the student do this in the future?
 - ii. Should the supervisor tailor his communication to the student's individual qualities?
 - iii. If so, how closely?
6. How should the supervisor use this incident in future supervisions?