

Alternative Constitutionalisms: Asia
Tom Ginsburg, University of Chicago

- I. Introduction
- II. Confucian Constitutionalism and the Pre-19th Century Understanding
 - a. Imperial Chinese Institutions
 - b. Buddhist similarities in terms of limited institutional constraints on power
- III. Attempts at Synthesis
 - a. Sun Yat Sen
 - b. Meiji Modernization
 - c. Southeast Asian Post-Colonial Structures
- IV. Today: Two Variants
 - a. The Evolving Constitution of “Socialist Legality”
 - i. China
 - ii. Vietnam
 - b. The Post-political Constitution in New Democracies
 - i. South Korea
 - ii. Thailand
 - iii. Taiwan
 - iv. Indonesia
 - v. Philippines
 - c. Exceptional cases:
 - i. Japan: Democratic Constitutional Endurance
 - ii. North Korea: Totalitarian Endurance
- V. Conclusion