

AALS COMMITTEE ON CURRICULUM

SURVEY OF INNOVATIONS IN LAW SCHOOL CURRICULA

The AALS has decided to focus on the issue of curriculum reform in American Law Schools, and would like to set up a process that enables law schools to share information about what is being done, help each other develop new initiatives, and generally catalyze the effort to bring law teaching into the 21st century. The first step in this process is a survey of current curriculum reform efforts. We understand that surveys come thick and fast these days, but we promise that this is not an effort to collect information that will then sit on someone's shelf, or in someone's hard drive. First, you'll receive information in return, information about new ideas and implementation strategies that other law schools have developed. Second, we'll use the results of the survey to design various settings where law school faculty and administrators can come together to share ideas and develop plans about reforming the law school curriculum.

The following questions are designed to be answered by brief statements, sometimes one or two words, sometimes one or two sentences. We would be delighted if you want to attach a longer description of any program or plan that you regard as particularly worth sharing. In addition, feel free to attach documents you've already prepared for other purposes.

I. First Year

1. Do you have an elective in the first year? Yes

If so, what does it consist of?

A limited number of courses specially designed for the first year

A limited number of upper division courses

Any upper division course the student chooses to take

Something else (please describe)

faculty members can state the course is inappropriate for first years, but must give a justification

2. Do you offer or require any skills courses or training in the first year other than legal writing and/or Legal Research? If so, please describe.

no

If you offer or require legal writing, is it something other than a separate class taught by specially-hired, non-tenure track instructors? If so, please describe.

we are going to the special LRW teachers for the first time next year.

3. Aside from the electives and skills courses described above, do you require any course other than Torts, Contracts, Civil Procedure, Criminal Law, Property and Constitutional Law?

If so, what is it?

Legal Methods

Regulatory Law

International Law

Evidence

Criminal Procedure

Theories of Law

Other, please describe

4. Do you offer a separate curriculum in the first year that students can choose, or to which they are assigned? If so, please describe.

no

5. Have you made significant changes or innovations in your first year curriculum recently other than those described in response to the foregoing questions? If so please describe.

all of these changes are brand new and scheduled to take effect next fall.

II. Second and Third Years

1. Do you offer a specialized track or concentration program in any of the following areas?

Business Law

Public Law

International Law

Transnational Law

Social Justice

Criminal Law and Procedure

Other, please describe

Requires courses that other students can take as well (please specify)
Offers special courses (please describe)
Requires special courses (please describe)
Provides placements, internships or clinical program (please describe)
Grants a certificate (please tell us for what)
Other features (please describe)

2. Apart from the standard live client clinics, and the clinical programs described in your answer to the previous question, do you offer any other kinds of clinical programs? If so, please describe.

3. What joint degree or accelerated degree programs do you offer?

JD/MD JD/MBA JD/MPH JD/PhD JD/MA JD/MS we currently start 30 students in May; all students may accelerate their graduation with a minimum time of study of 27 months.

4. Other than the programs described above, do you have any other interdisciplinary programs of note?

No

5. Have you made significant changes or innovations in your second and third year curriculum recently other than those described in response to the foregoing questions? If so please describe.

no; currently under review, however.

III. Curricular Reform Process

1. Did you gather data in connection with any of the curriculum reforms described earlier? If yes, and if you can share them, please attach a copy or describe their general findings.

yes; can't share because too extensive

2. How did the most significant curricular change in your school in the last 10 years come about - - who initiated the change and by what process?

moving from tenured faculty teaching research and writing in the context of first year small sections to new special LRW faculty. initiated by faculty. two year process: first to make the decision, this year to work out details of the program and hire people.

IV. Next Steps

1. What information would you like to receive about curricular reform?

upper class innovations, as we are engaged in that now

2. Would you be interested in presenting any curricular reform(s) that you are undertaking in a special session at an AALS annual meeting? Which one(s)?

can't say now

If so, would you be interested in doing so at the next (2007) meeting? It will be held in San Francisco, and spec