

TWELVE TIPS FOR SUCCESS FOR NEW LAW TEACHERS

Anthony E. Varona
Associate Professor of Law
Pace U. School of Law
(American U., Washington College of Law beginning Fall 2005)

The following are the “headlines” for each of my top twelve tips. I will elaborate upon them at our Reports from New Law Teachers Panel, and at the conclusion of my presentation will distribute to all attendees hardcopies of my PowerPoint® slides, expanding upon each tip in detail.

1. CELEBRATE
2. CLEAR THE DECKS
3. LEARN TO SAY “NO” DIPLOMATICALLY AND STRATEGICALLY
4. RECRUIT THREE SPECIALIZED MENTORS/ADVISORS
5. BE SWITZERLAND ON FACULTY CONTROVERSIES
6. BE COLLEGIAL WITH EVERYONE ON FACULTY
7. PUSH YOURSELF HARD, BUT SENSIBLY
8. BUDGET AND PROTECT YOUR TIME
9. KICK-START YOUR SCHOLARSHIP *NOW*
10. WORK TO IMPROVE YOUR TEACHING *NOW*
11. USE TECHNOLOGY STRATEGICALLY
12. START AN “ALL ABOUT ME” FILE