

Gonzaga University School of Law CARES FOR THE WHOLE PERSON

MIND

The C.E.A.L. Division: Provides academic support and bar preparation services, as well as health and wellness services.

Trivia Night: Reminding students that learning can be fun!

WSBA Member Wellness Program: Promotes the health and well-being of Washington state law students.

Animal Therapy: The law school coordinates with different organizations to provide animal therapy including Banks the Pig, the Mobile Petting Zoo, and Therapy Dogs.

ZagLaw Emergency Fund: Helps students with emergency expenses, taking their mind off of money issues.

Center for Cura Personalis: Works for and supports students who are facing personal or academic challenges and connects them to on-campus and off-campus resources.

BODY

Food Pantry: Student-led program addressing food insecurity by providing free food items.

Finals Snack Tables: Keeping students fueled during finals!

Chair Massages: Offered to help students relieve stress.

SPIRIT

Chaplain Services at the Law School: On campus chaplain who provides religious counseling and guidance.

Office of Mission and Ministry: Serves students and addresses their needs in a spiritual capacity.

Red Mass: Marks the opening of the judicial year and asks guidance from the Holy Spirit for all who seek justice.

DIVERSITY

DEIA Training for Incoming Students: Ensures every student is educated on the importance of diversity.

University BIAS Team Representation: Resource for recognizing and reporting bias on campus.

Long Term DEIA Plan: The law school is implementing additional training, social events, virtual opportunities.

Clubs and Organizations: GU School of Law has a wide range of diverse, student-led clubs.

COMMUNITY

Bingo Night: Encouraging students to socialize with their peers and play bingo!

Bulldog Social: The best food and drinks free for students.

Coffee with the Deans: Students can meet with the deans and have a conversation over coffee.

Game Watch: Students can watch Zag basketball together!

Garland Theater: Free movie tickets for students!

LAWn Party: Relax or play yard games on the law school's grassy lawn!

Clubs and Organizations: Lets students come together and pursue their mutual interests. Examples include: Street Law, Innocence Club, and the Public Interest Law Project.

