Article VI. Policy Statements

Because Sections are part of the AALS structure, statements of policy or similar positions adopted by the Section shall be submitted to the Executive Committee of the AALS for approval prior to publication.

Article VII. Award

Section 1. Establishment of Award. The Section on Law Professors with Disabilities and Allies hereby establishes the Chai Fedlblum award, named in honor of Chai Fedlblum, a disabled law professor and disability rights advocate.

Section 2. Award Criteria. The Award may be awarded by the Section to an individual who fulfills any one of the three following criteria:

a. An individual who has, through leadership, mentoring, advocacy, scholarly or other work made substantial contributions to the inclusion of people with disabilities in the legal profession, legal academia, or at their own institution; or, who has made significant contributions to the creation of a welcoming environment for people with disabilities, increasing the availability of access or accommodations, or otherwise contributed to the standing of people with disabilities in the legal profession, legal academia, or at their own institution.

b. A junior faculty member and Section member whose scholarly, teaching, clinical or service work shows exceptional promise (this work need not be related specifically to disability issues).

c. A senior faculty member and Section member whose scholarly, teaching, clinical or service work has made exceptional contributions to the profession (this work need not be related specifically to disability issues).

Section 3. Eligibility. All current and former professional legal educators are eligible for the Award, including administrators, librarians, clinical faculty, legal writing teachers, and tenure track and tenured faculty. However, the serving Chair shall not be eligible for the Award, and any other serving member of the Section Leadership must recuse from the Award Selection process if they are nominated.

Section 4. Nominations. Nominations may be made at any time to the Chair of the Section. Each year, the Chair should announce the existence of the Award and solicit nominations through e-mail listservs, and by other means in the discretion of the Chair. Nominations should be made in written form, describing why the nominee should be considered for the Award, and self-nominations are permissible. The nomination should include the nominee's CV or other similar information.

Section 5. Selection. The Chair shall call a meeting of the Executive Committee to consider the nominees in advance of the Annual Meeting of the AALS. All nominations which were received after the Executive Committee last met to consider the Award shall be considered at the meeting. Copies of all materials submitted in support of the nomination shall be distributed to members of the executive committee in advance of the meeting. The Executive Committee may choose to select a single recipient of the award, or, if it has strong candidates from more than one category, may select up to one awardee from each category set out in Section 2. The recipient(s) shall be selected by consensus of the Executive Committee after discussion, or if no consensus is reached, by majority vote of the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee may vote not to grant the Award in any given year.

Section 6. Presentation. The Award shall ordinarily be presented at the Annual Meeting of the AALS, at Section programming.

Article VIII. Amendments.

These bylaws may be amended at the annual meeting of the Section by a majority of the regular members of the Section present and voting. The amendment takes effect when it is approved by the AALS under applicable procedures.
