ARTICLE III

Officers and Council

Section 1. The officers of this Section shall be a Chairperson and four Vice-Chairpersons.

Section 2. At the annual meeting of the Section the following officers shall be nominated and elected as the offices become vacant:

(1) A Chairperson.
(2) The first Vice-Chairperson shall be Secretary-Treasurer.
(3) The second Vice-Chairperson shall be Director of Regional Meetings & Conferences.
(4) The third Vice-Chairperson shall be Director of Programs for the Annual Meeting.
(5) The fourth Vice-Chairperson shall be Director of Membership.

The Chairperson shall be elected at the annual meeting for a term of two years beginning with the adjournment of the annual meeting of the Association of American Law Schools during which the chairperson is elected and ending with the adjournment of such annual meeting two years thereafter. Each Vice-Chairperson shall be elected for a term of two years beginning with the adjournment of the annual meeting of the Association of American Law Schools during which that Vice-Chairperson is elected and ending with the adjournment of such annual meeting two years thereafter; provided, however, that the first and second Vice-Chairpersons elected after the effective date of these By-Laws shall serve for a term of two years and the third and fourth Vice-Chairpersons shall serve for a term of one year. Thereafter, all Vice-Chairpersons shall be elected for two year terms.

A year, within the meaning of this Article, shall be understood to be the period from the close of any annual meeting of the Section to the close of the next succeeding annual meeting.

Section 3. There shall be a Council which shall consist of all elected officers.

Section 4. At each annual meeting there shall be elected such officers, if any, as may be necessary to fill any vacancies which otherwise would exist after such meeting in any terms extending beyond the close of such meeting, whether or not such vacancy shall have been filled until the close of such meeting by act of the Council pursuant to Section 3 of Article VI of these By-Laws. Any person so elected to fill a vacancy shall serve until the expiration of the term with respect to which such vacancy existed.

Each officer shall serve either until the office becomes vacant by death, resignation or otherwise under these By-Laws or until a successor shall have been chosen and takes office.

Section 5. No person shall be eligible for election as an officer if that person is then an officer and has been such continuously for a period of four years or more; provided, however, that the foregoing requirement may be waived by majority vote of the members of the Section present at the time of the annual election, and by the consent of such waiver of a majority of the Council, stated orally at such time or communicated to the first Vice-Chairperson in writing.

Section 6. If any elected member of the Council shall fail to attend two successive meetings of the Council, the place held by such member shall be automatically vacated, and the Council shall fill such vacancy in the manner provided for in Article VI of these By-Laws. For the purpose of applying the foregoing provision the regular meetings of the Council held immediately preceding and immediately following the close of any annual meeting of the Section, pursuant to Section 5 of Article VII of these By-Laws, shall be deemed to be one meeting.

Section 7. Any officer may be removed for cause by vote of a majority of members of the Council at a special meeting which may be called by the Chairperson or any two members of the Council. Such vote shall be taken only after the person or persons to be so removed have been notified of the reason for such removal and given opportunity to be heard. No irregularity or omission in procedures with respect to any such removal shall affect the validity of removal and the determination of the Council in this matter shall be conclusive.
ARTICLE IV
Nomination and Election of Officers

At any time prior to the printing of the Section Report due September 30, the Chairperson after consultation with the Council, shall appoint a Nominating Committee of three members of the Section, none of whom shall be an officer at the time of appointment and not more than two of whom shall be former officers of the Section, and shall designate one of the members as Chairperson of the Nominating Committee. The Chairperson shall promptly thereafter announce the names and addresses of the members of the Committee in the official Section publication, or by other publication to Section members. The Chairperson may appoint a member to fill any vacancy which may thereafter arise in the Nominating Committee. The Nominating Committee shall make and report at least one nomination for each position which is to be filled by election at the next annual meeting as provided elsewhere in the By-Laws. The report shall identify each nominee and shall include a brief statement of his activities in the Section and in the field of legal teaching generally. The Committee shall submit its report to the Chairperson of the Section who shall cause it to be published in the Section Report or otherwise published to Section members prior to the annual meeting. The Nominating Committee shall supplement its published report and action by making one nomination for each unanticipated vacancy, if any, that may arise prior to the beginning of the annual meeting of the Section. At the commencement of the first session of the annual meeting of the Section, the Chairperson of the Nominating Committee or, in his absence, the Section Chairperson, shall orally announce the report of the Nominating Committee. Additional nominations for any specified position may be made from the floor; the nominator shall briefly identify the nominee as above provided with respect to the report of the Nominating Committee. The election shall then be held. Elections for contested positions shall be by written ballot unless otherwise ordered by unanimous consent of the Section members present. Each position to be filled by contested election shall be voted upon separately. Election shall be by a majority of the votes cast for the position. If a majority vote is not initially obtained, a run-off election shall be held to choose between the two leading candidates.

ARTICLE V

The Chairperson shall formulate and present at each annual meeting of the Section a report of the work of the Section for the past year and shall perform such other duties and acts as usually pertain to his office.

Section 1. The Council shall have general supervision and control of the affairs of the Section, subject to the provisions of these By-Laws. It shall especially authorize all commitments or contracts which shall entail the payment of money, and no monies appropriated for the use or benefit of the Section shall be expended without such authorization. The Council shall not, however, authorize commitments or contracts which shall entail the payment of more money during any fiscal year than the amount which shall have been previously appropriated to the Section for such fiscal year.

If the votes of a majority of the members of the Council shall be in favor of such proposition, or if such majority shall be against such position, such majority vote shall constitute binding action of the Council.
