Usage Policy

AALS's mailing lists are for one-time use only. The list can be mailed one time and cannot be photocopied, duplicated, or entered into a temporary or permanent database, or used in any other fashion or format for any future or subsequent use. In addition, a copy of your intended mailing must be attached to the completed order form. Your sample mailing should contain information that will serve the professional interests of faculty and administrators of our member schools. No order will be processed without the sample mailing. AALS reserves the right to review your intended mailing prior to accepting your list order and reserves the right to refuse any order request. A separate order form must be submitted and approved by AALS before reusing any list. We are confident that you will cooperate in carrying out the Association's policy.
