

Association of American Law Schools
Bylaws of the Section on International Human Rights Law

Article I. Name and Purpose

1. Name. This section shall be known as the Section on International Human Rights Law.
2. Purpose. The purpose of this section is to promote the communication of ideas, interests, and activities among members and to make recommendations to the Association on matters of interest in the teaching and improvement of the law relating to international human rights.

Article II. Membership

1. Membership.
  - 1.1 Membership in the section is open to faculty members and professional staff of a law school that is a member of the Association of American Law Schools (AALS).
  - 1.2 Associate membership is open to any other person who is concerned with the teaching, administration, and improvement of legal education in the subject area of the section.
2. Privileges of Members.
  - 2.1 Regular members may be officers of the section and may vote in a section election.
  - 2.2 Associate members may participate in the programs, meetings, and activities of the section, but may not vote or hold office in the section.

Article III. Officers, Executive and Other Committees

1. Officers. The officers of this section are the chair, the chair-elect, the secretary and the treasurer. The chair-elect shall be elected at each annual meeting of the Association, shall qualify by acceptance and shall succeed to the office of chair at the close of the next annual meeting. If the positions of secretary and/or treasurer are to be filled, the secretary and/or treasurer shall be elected at the Annual Meeting. An officer shall serve until a successor has been elected and qualified.

2. The Executive Committee.
  - 2.1 The Executive Committee of the section is the chair of the section, chair-elect and no fewer than three other members elected annually.
  - 2.2 The Executive Committee shall act on behalf of the section in the interval between annual meetings and may create standing and special committees.
3. Non-Officer Special Assignments. The Chair may make special assignments by appointing an Annual Meeting Program Chair, Newsletter Editor and/or Mentor Coordinator.
4. Filling Vacancies. If an officer or other member of the Executive Committee resigns, becomes ineligible to serve or dies, the position shall be promptly filled. If the position of chair becomes vacant, the chair-elect becomes the chair. If the position of chair-elect becomes vacant, the chair, with the advice and consent of the other members of the Executive Committee, shall appoint a person to serve as chair-elect until the next annual meeting of AALS at which time both a chair and a chair-elect shall be elected. If the position of a member of the Executive Committee becomes vacant, the chair, with the advice and consent of the other members of the Executive Committee, shall appoint a person to the position to serve until the next annual meeting of the AALS.

Article IV. Nominations and Elections

1. Nominations. At or immediately following the annual meeting, the chair shall appoint the Nomination Committee for the subsequent year. The Nomination Committee shall consist of at least three members of the section and shall include at least one past chair of the section. The Nomination Committee shall receive and consider suggestions of persons to serve as officers and members of the Executive Committee of the section and shall report a slate of nominees to the section for election at the business meeting of the section at the next annual meeting of the AALS.
2. Elections. The position of chair shall be filled by the chair-elect. The other officers and all members of the Executive Committee of the section shall be elected at the annual meeting. Nominations shall be received from the Nominating Committee and from the floor. Elections may be voice vote or secret ballot, as the chair determines.
