Section on Institutional Advancement Program

At the request of the Section on Institutional Advancement, the AALS Executive Committee agreed to offer a separate registration fee for the Section's two-day program for institutional advancement professionals. This institutional advancement professional fee is for the two-day program (including the Section Luncheon on January 5) with an optional fee to attend the Association's Luncheon. If you are interested in attending any other Annual Meeting programs or events, please sign up for the full Annual Meeting, which includes the two-day Institutional Advancement program. If you select the full Annual Meeting option, you will need to purchase a separate ticket for the January 5 Section Luncheon.

We are pleased to be in Washington, D.C. for the 2015 AALS Annual Meeting. The Annual Meeting will take place at the Marriott Wardman Park Hotel in a neighborhood with great restaurants and shops nearby. You can discover funky stores and ethnic cuisine in the adjacent neighborhoods of Adams Morgan or the exciting night life, restaurants, live music, and bars of Dupont Circle, U Street, and Georgetown. The Smithsonian is the world’s largest museum complex with 19 museums, most reachable by D.C.’s subway system, the Metro. Enjoy a quiet hike or invigorating run through Rock Creek Park. With a Metro stop just outside the hotel door, it is easy to access everything D.C. has to offer. For more on local attractions, visit aals.org/am2015/local.

Demand for effective fundraisers is now so high that it is vastly outstripping the supply. The average amount of time a fundraiser stays at his/her job is 16 months. This makes development staff turnover a very costly fact of life for any organization. From the perspective of the individual fundraiser, changing jobs may appear to be the best option for his/her career development—an increase in salary, a more senior role, even a better office. Fundraising success requires more attention towards finding, managing, and keeping talented staff. This will be an “in conversation” session with the panelists examining the issue from the viewpoint of the employer and the employee.

Speaker: Speakers to be announced.

12:15 – 1:30 p.m.
