

Call for Papers for the Program of the Section on Legislation & Law of the Political Process At the 2018 AALS Annual Meeting

The Section on Legislation and Law of the Political Process is pleased to announce a Call for Papers from which one to two presenters will be selected for the section's program to be held during the AALS 2018 Annual Meeting in San Diego on Congressional Procedure, Politics, and Power.

Submission Requirements

In a time of a polarized politics, congressional procedure has become ever more important and contested, often shaping policy outcomes on a fundamental level. This panel will examine recent developments and dynamics in the legislative process. Submissions should be drafts of law review quality articles on that topic. Although there are no specific length requirements, drafts should be in the range of thirty (30) to sixty (60) pages.

Submission Process

Papers should be submitted electronically to Professor Rebecca Kysar at rebecca.kysar@brooklaw.edu by Friday, August 25, 2017. Submissions will be reviewed by members of the Executive Committee of the Section. The authors of the papers selected will be notified by mid-September.

Inquiries or Questions

Any inquiries about the Call for Papers should be submitted to Rebecca Kysar, chair of the section, at Brooklyn Law School, rebecca.kysar@brooklaw.edu, (718)780-7545.