CE Webinar is an innovator in higher education, focusing on prep and review. Our MBE Law Decks allows law students and graduates to work on critical-thinking and test-taking skills to help them prepare for their Multi-state Bar Exam. Our goal is to help students identify their areas of strengths and weaknesses while they practice bar exam-style questions in order to make their bar review course more meaningful and effective. We're the PREP before the prep. We help students plan their studying around those areas that they need to focus on rather than reviewing everything, including the information they already know.

LSAC is a membership-driven legal education association that provides essential products and services to ease the admission process for law schools and their applicants worldwide. Currently, 221 law schools in the US, Canada, and Australia are members of the Council and benefit from LSAC's services. For all users, LSAC strives to provide the highest quality of products, services, and customer service. The Law School Admission Test (LSAT), with about 100,000 tests administered annually at testing centers worldwide, is an integral part of the admission process at law schools in the US, Canada, and a growing number of other countries. The test helps law schools make sound admission decisions by providing a standard measure of critical reasoning and reading skills that are essential for success in law school. LSAC also processes academic credentials for an average of 60,000 law school applicants annually, which streamlines the admission process for applicants and the schools to which they apply, provides admission software and data that is used by all member law schools, and hosts law school recruitment forums to help law schools and applicants find each other. LSAC is committed to increasing diversity in the legal profession and supports programs and organizations that share this goal.

We provide law schools with high value yet economical resources that can be used in creating and operating their own bar foundation classes. We provide you everything a law school needs to start, grow, and operate without interference or student direct marketing - tables, emails etc. Stop by booth 316 and receive a free book detailing step-by-step how your law school can initiate your own foundation program. We also are giving out actual books. A thoughtful effort will increase both your pass rate and esprit de corps. Your students, alumni, and other constituents will thank you. Jim Rigos Primer Series Themis Bar Review offers law schools an innovative suite of academic and bar support programming via our research-aligned online portal. Customized data analytics and reports evaluate students' level of understanding of foundational topics and allow for early identification of those who require additional support and guidance as they move towards their bar exam. The Themis methodology helps students use cognitive resources efficiently by using online instructional-design techniques based in proven scientific research, such as pre-training, segmenting, and intermittent quizzing. Stop by Booth 105 in the Exhibit Hall to learn more about our custom learning solutions available for your law school.

Built specifically for institutions, U.S. News Academic Insights is the best benchmarking tool available in Higher Education. Academic Insights provides schools the ability to quickly analyze their relative position to other institutions based on single data points or ranking criteria. Peer group creation can be generated based on manual school selection or by ranking cohort. Through a variety of visualizations, the platform clearly shows how your institution compares to others over time. The platform also offers access to our Download Center, where users can quickly download datasets for their own analysis.
