

JURISPRUDENCE SECTION NEWSLETTER, SEPTEMBER 2019

Jurisprudence Section Announcements

- Jurisprudence Section Award Nominations: The deadline is next week, Monday, September 9! You may nominate at most one person or work for each award by emailing me (<mihailis-diamantis@uiowa.edu>). Each nomination must be accompanied by a supporting paragraph. For the Article and Future Promise Awards, an electronic copy of the work for which the author is being nominated must be attached. Works forming the basis of any nomination for the Article Award must have a 2018 or 2019 year of publication. The awards are:
 - The Hart-Dworkin Award in Legal Philosophy: Given annually to a scholar who has made significant and lasting contributions to the philosophical understanding of law.
 - Jurisprudence Section Article Award: Given annually to a tenured or tenure-track scholar in recognition of a single article or book chapter published in the prior year that exemplifies exceptional philosophical work in legal scholarship.
 - Future Promise Award: Given annually to a pre-tenure-track scholar for a single article or book chapter that reflects future promise in philosophy and law.
- Jurisprudence Section Listserv: As a reminder, the listserv (<SECTJP.aals@lists.aals.org>) is now an open community forum. Official communications from the board (like this one) are now sent via direct email using the Jurisprudence Section membership roster. If you wish to receive official Section communications but not listserv traffic, you can unsubscribe from the listserv using the online settings in your AALS account. If you wish to receive no Section correspondence at all, please request removal from the Section by emailing AALS Section Services Manager Josh Albertson (<JAlbertson@aals.org>).
- Let the Section Know About Your Scholarship and Events!: To make a submission for October's newsletter, please email me (<mihailis-diamantis@uiowa.edu>). For Event submissions, please provide a date, title, location, and a link for more information. For Recent Scholarship submissions, please provide citation information, a link to the work, and (if desired) a two-sentence description.

Events

- Oct. 1, CFP, Data and Ethics, University of Vienna, Austria
- Nov. 1-2, Money: What is it? How Should It Function?, University of Groningen, The Netherlands
- Nov. 30, CFP, Hate Speech: What It Is and How It Works, Karlsruhe Institute of Technology, Germany
- Dec. 31, CFP, Cornell Conference in Philosophy of Law, Cornell University, Ithaca, NY

Recent Scholarship

- Mihailis E. Diamantis, The Extended Corporate Mind: When Corporations Use AI to Break the Law, 91 N.C. L. REV. (forthcoming 2020): Since the law defines corporate misconduct in terms of employee misconduct, it has difficulty holding corporations accountable when algorithms rather than employees are the source of corporate harm. Recent work in psychology and philosophy of mind point to a doctrinal fix.