

AALS 2024 Standing Committees and Board

Committee on Academic Freedom and Tenure (CAFT)

This committee serves as a resource for member schools that request an assessment of their procedures for protecting academic freedom or tenure. Requests from individual faculty members are referred to the Department of Academic Freedom, Tenure, & Governance of the American Association of University Professors. There are two positions open for 2024.

Committee on Arc of Career Programs

This standing committee solicits and selects proposals for programs at the Annual Meeting that focus on the different stages of careers in legal education rather than on substantive fields of law. The committee also organizes a session for first-time meeting attendees. There are two positions open for 2024.

Journal of Legal Education* Editorial Board

The Editorial Board assists the Coordinating Editors of the Journal in reviewing manuscripts presented for possible publication in the Journal and provides general policy guidance. The Journal is a quarterly publication devoted to issues confronting legal educators, including curriculum development and legal scholarship. It also serves as an outlet for emerging areas of scholarship and teaching. There are three positions open for 2024.

Membership Review Committee (MRC)

The Membership Review Committee reviews law school applications for membership in the Association and approves periodic site evaluation reports on member law schools. The committee meets twice a year to evaluate schools up for sabbatical review and to make recommendations to the Executive Committee on the actions it should take. There are three positions open for 2024.

Recruitment and Retention of Minority Law Teachers and Students

This committee is charged with recommending to the Executive Committee how the Association can better assist member and fee-paid schools in the recruitment and retention of minority law teachers and students. There are three positions open for 2024.

Sections Committee

The Sections Committee mission is to improve the operation of Sections throughout the year, as well as their programming for the Annual Meeting. The committee also selects the winner of the Section of the Year Award. There are three positions open for 2024.

AALS 2024 Special Committees

Nominating Committee for 2025 Officers and Members of the Executive Committee

The Nominating Committee has the task of nominating faculty from member law schools to serve on the AALS Executive Committee in the following year. The committee reviews nominations solicited by the AALS, and recommends to the AALS House of Representatives two nominees for the Executive Committee and the next President-Elect. The Committee meets in Washington, D.C. in September. There are three positions open for 2024.

Program Committee for the 2025 Annual Meeting

This committee solicits and selects proposals for “open submission” programs for the Annual Meeting that do not come from Sections. There are four types of “open submission” programs: symposium programs, small discussion groups, open source programs not sponsored by a Section, and hot topics. There are four positions open for 2024.

Scholarly Papers for the 2025 Annual Meeting

The committee selects the winner(s) of the Scholarly Papers Competition that is open to faculty at AALS Member and Fee Paid schools who have been in teaching for five years or less. The winning author(s) is/are recognized at the 2024 Annual Meeting. The Committee meets by conference call in October or November to select the awardee(s) after a winnowing process that begins in August. There are six positions open for 2024.
